The Rotary Club of Asolo & Pedemontana del Grappa will purchase one of the finalists' works, and the work selected will be added to the Club's private collection. In the future, this will enable the Club to embark on further charitable projects.

This is a special edition as for the first time the competition has a theme: Antonio Canova. The theme has been chosen as 2022 marks 200 years since the death of this great artist and the Rotary Club Asolo & Pedemontana del Grappa has decided to commemorate this occasion via the competition so as to pay homage to Canova, held to be the foremost exponent of Neoclassicism in sculpture.

The competition is open to both male and female artists of all nationalities under the age of 40. Entrants participate by submitting one of their own works to the competition, which may be a painting, sculpture, installation (multimedia, lighting effects, etc.), photograph, drawing, graphic design or video art.

The final shortlist of 20 works will be selected by the Evaluation Commission, made up of leading professionals in the sector, whose decision will be final.

The winning entry will be selected from among this shortlist of 20 works by the members of the Rotary Club Asolo & Pedemontana del Grappa, and again their decision will be final.
